

PerryGolf Presents 2010 Epicurean Golf Tours to Australia, France, Italy, New Zealand, Portugal, Scotland and Spain.

Call it providence or simple good fortune, but a great many of golf's finest courses are found where you will also enjoy the world's finest food and wine. PerryGolf's new 2010 Epicurean Golf Tours are expertly designed for you to combine the best of both.

Enjoy tapas at the turn in Andalusia. Port and Praia d'el Rey in Portugal. Tour New Zealand's Waimauku vineyards plus Hawke's Bay for two days before your day of reckoning at astounding Cape Kidnappers. It's morning golf in Lake Como before cooking classes each afternoon. Meander the Rhône for golf, grapes and gourmet dining. Of course, nothing complements the Old Course like Andrew Fairlie's at Gleneagles.

PerryGolf has eleven itineraries for 2010 which are an excellent resource for researching the tour you prefer. The itineraries can be adjusted in any way you wish or I can help you build one completely from scratch.
