

PLAY THE GAME. SEE THE WORLD.

PerryGolf is the luxury golf tour operator of choice for those who wish to combine their love of the game with their passion for international travel. We offer twelve of the world's most memorable destinations with Scotland our most popular. The company was founded in 1984 near Glasgow, where it is headquartered today. Worldwide marketing and sales is based in Wilmington, North Carolina.

Completely customized itineraries are our longstanding expertise. Beginning with expert travel planning assistance by our highly knowledgeable sales staff, every aspect of a PerryGolf tour is seamlessly arranged from tee times and accommodation to local transportation, sightseeing and international air travel.

Our clients typically belong to private golf and country clubs and are 45-70 years of age. Their average spend is $4,000 per person plus air. Better still, they like to play and travel with their friends.

The newest opportunity with PerryGolf is the growth of couples golf travel thanks to baby boomers who are reaching their empty nest travel years in astounding numbers. We have positioned ourselves uniquely to capitalize on their desire to combine golf with luxury lifestyle travel experiences. Golf couples can enjoy a safari with golf in South Africa, or a river cruise through Provence with equal parts golf, gourmet dining and classic France. Our all new collection of Epicurean Golf Tours offers wine tours, culinary study and marquee golf in seven countries.

We invite you to visit the Travel Agent section of our website at www.perrygolf.com/travelagent for further background and to order literature. You will also and detailed itineraries for each of the 2009 Scotland tours listed on the chart. As always of course, if ever you require personal assistance we welcome your call on 800 344 5257 or email to Information@PerryGolf.com.
