Saturday, June 1

This evening depart the United States.

---

Sunday, June 2

Play today at North Berwick (tbc). Like St.Andrews the links starts and finishes in the town. One of Scotland's earliest golf clubs and correspondingly a very traditional links layout. The West Course requires unusual shotmaking, along with blind shots and play over stone dykes. Features the par 3, 15th 'Redan' which is probably the most frequently copied short hole in the world. Entered into the Top 100 Courses in the World in the 2007 Rankings.

Monday, June 3

Play Gullane #1 (tbc), a regular host to major championships and rated alongside Scotland's more famous championship courses. Gullane #1 is unusually hilly for an east of Scotland links. Once you reach the top of Gullane Hill, you have great views over the River Forth. The Scottish Open, won by Rickie Fowler, was played over this historic links in 2015. Please note a very limited supply of golf carts are available for hire. Certain restrictions may apply, please advise your Golf Travel Specialist.

Friday, June 7

---

Play the Ailsa Course (tbc) at Turnberry. The course has undergone a redevelopment and reopened with a stunning new layout in June 2016. Lying on a spectacular curve of rockbound coast in the southern reaches of Ayrshire. The course now makes the most of the coastal scenery especially from the 4th through the 11th passing the famous landmark lighthouse at the turn, which is now a stunning halfway house. This is a demanding links course, and an ever present wind will make for a tough examination of your golfing skills. In 2009, the Ailsa Course hosted the Open Championship for the 4th time when golfing legend Tom Watson lost out to Stewart Cink in a play off for the Claret Jug.

Your Lodging

MacDonald Marine Hotel & Spa

---

The MacDonald Marine Hotel & Spa is a delightful Victorian turreted mansion, which proudly stands 'chateau-like', overlooking the 16th green of the magnificent North Berwick, West links Golf Course. It commands superb views past the sandy beaches of the firth of Forth to the distant shores of the golfing kingdom of Fife where boats and yachts sail past, making their way to and from the picturesque sandstone harbor of North Berwick. The hotel, re-opened in October 2005, following a 13.5 million pound refurbishment including new Spa facilities. With turret suites, family rooms and four posters there is a wide range of accommodation to suit everyone. Warm & inviting, the new rooms are stylish and desirable with all the modern conveniences for business and leisure travelers alike. Soak up the views from the Seaview Lounge, the Library or the Conservatory. Enjoy a drink in the Links Bar, a malt whisky or afternoon tea perhaps in the Drawing Room, or simply enjoy the food in the Craighleith restaurant. The refurbishment has taken in all public areas providing havens of tranquility and hubs of activity. Luxurious fabrics, open log fires and deep chairs are situated throughout the lounges and a traditional library retreat is available to bury your head in a good book.

Trump Turnberry, A Luxury Collection Resort

The world renowned Trump Turnberry, A Luxury Collection Resort overlooks Scotland's South West Ayrshire coast. Contained within 360 acres this luxury hotel, golf and leisure resort with few equals in the world. Turnberry's spectacular Ailsa course was chosen for The Open in 1977, 1986, 1994 and 2009. The Hotel was built at the turn of the century and underwent a complete renovation, restoration and remodeling of all guestrooms, suites, corridors, restaurants and public spaces that was completed in June 2016. The famous Ailsa Course was also overhauled with significant changes made to the links, including incredible improvements from holes 9 to 11. The changes are set to further enhance its reputation as one of the finest links courses in the world. Turnberry has a lavish Spa, with indoor and outdoor amenities, which reopened in 2017. Nearby are riding stables, sea and river fishing, rough shooting, stalking, and trap shooting.
