Today play Ardglass (tbc). On the south east coast of County Down you will find this cliff top seaside course built on black rocks once frequented by pirates and smugglers. Not long in length but full of character with some memorable holes, most notably the par 3 second which is played across an inlet with the sea surging below.

OVERNIGHT: Slieve Donard Resort & Spa - 2 Classic Room

Friday, June 3

Golf today on Royal County Down (tbc), designed by Tom Morris in 1889 and situated in the shadows of the Mourne mountains. A spectacular location and an outstanding links golf course. It's charm lies in the old fashioned flavour of both the terrain and the layout. A mix of rugged dunes, coloured by a blend of purple heather and yellow flowering gorse combine to a dramatic effect on what is one of the toughest courses in the British Isles. Venue for the Walker Cup in 2007 and consistently ranked in the top 10 courses in the world.

The natural shape of the land is ideal for classic links golf with elevated tees, rolling valleys, and subtle doglegs providing a magnificent challenge. Now regarded as one of the top courses in Ireland. Please note a very limited supply of golf carts are available for hire. Certain restrictions may apply, please advise your Golf Travel Specialist.

Golf on Royal Portrush - Dunluce Links (tbc), an outstanding links course in a dramatic setting on the Antrim Coast in Northern Ireland. It holds the distinction of being the only course outside of mainland Great Britain to have hosted the Open, which it did in 1951 and will again in 2019. The Dunluce Course is as fine a links as you will find anywhere, with the 5th being a particularly memorable hole to a green hanging on the edge of a cliff. Consistently ranked in the top 20 of the world's best courses, nearly every legend of golf has taken on the challenge of Royal Portrush.
