Following the great success of our previous Escorted Tours to Southeast Asia, PerryGolf is thrilled to now provide details of our 2018 Escorted Tour to this utterly fascinating and exciting part of the world. Guests may choose either our 10 night program to Cambodia and Vietnam, or our 14 night tour that combines Cambodia and Vietnam with an additional 4 nights in Bangkok, the culturally intense capital of Thailand. The quality of golf has long been recognized in Thailand while it is Vietnam that is the hot new golf destination having been voted Best Asian Golf Destination in 2012. In Cambodia, what could be more exotic than golf with the 1,000 year old 6th wonder of the world, Angkor Wat, just a few miles away? Beyond the course there is much to see, from the iconic Halong Bay where we will enjoy a private overnight cruise to Hoi An, a UNESCO World Heritage Site city, where we will join a Vietnamese cooking class to learn the secrets of local spring rolls, salads and cua mang tay – a delicious crab meat and asparagus soup!

This fully escorted tour is inclusive of all accommodations with breakfast plus ground transportation, green fees, carts (or caddies) and all inter-Asia flights. A number of lunches and dinners are provided as noted in the Detailed Itinerary.

We will convene in Bangkok, Thailand on 30 January with our 10 night guests joining in Siem Reap Cambodia on 3 February. The tour will conclude in Hanoi, Vietnam on 13 February. Each of these cities provide convenient international air access, and your short inter-Asia flights are already included in the program price.

Cambodia & Vietnam 2018 (Escorted) ~ Golf, Temples & Tombs 10 Nights | 6 Rounds | 3 - 13 February 2018

Our Guests joining for the 10 night Cambodia & Vietnam tour will arrive in Siem Reap, Cambodia today where they will be met at the airport and transferred to our hotel, the Sofitel Angkor Phokeethra Golf & Spa Resort. Situated just 10 minutes away from the famed monuments at Angkor Wat, French colonial elegance sits amidst the meticulously manicured gardens of Sofitel Angkor Phokeethra Golf & Spa Resort. Our Siem Reap luxury hotel proudly receives a banquet of awards each and every year.

OVERNIGHT: ALL GUESTS: Sofitel Phokeethra Resort – Superior Room

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 4: SIEM REAP, CAMBODIA

GOLF: Phokeethra Country Club, host of the Cambodian Open and Johnnie Walker Classic, was the first international standard golf course in Siem Reap. A combination of Paspalum grasses are used on both fairways and greens, which gives the golf course its deep green color and insures a high standard of course conditions all year round. Tight fairways and undulating greens give the golf course a distinctive layout and feel.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers visit Lake Tonlé Sap and explore by boat the area's unique floating villages and fishing communities. It is a massive freshwater lake which dominates the heart of the country. It provides an excellent glimpse of rural Cambodia and it's rich ecosystem supporting hundreds of fishing communities and abundant bird life. Your afternoon is free at own leisure to relax by the pool or catch-up on some photo opportunities around town.

This evening a Welcome-to-Cambodia dinner at one of the best local restaurants in Siem Reap.

OVERNIGHT: Sofitel Phokeethra Resort – Superior Room

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5: SIEM REAP, CAMBODIA

GOLF: Angkor Golf Resort is considered the finest in Cambodia. Designer Sir Nick Faldo received a blessing from local monks and then opened the golf course in December 2007, his first in Cambodia. The Angkor Golf Resort brings Cambodia squarely onto the international golf destination map.

SIGHTSEEING: Day at leisure to enjoy the resort and the local town.

OVERNIGHT: Sofitel Phokeethra Resort – Superior Room

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6: SIEM REAP, CAMBODIA

Today may be highlight tour of your trip. After breakfast you will visit the crown jewel of Khmer architecture, 6th manmade wonder and largest religious monument in the world, the Angkor Wat temple complex.

This is the national symbol and the highlight of any visit to Cambodia. The largest, best preserved, and most religiously significant of the Angkor temples, Angkor impresses visitors both by its sheer scale and beautifully proportioned layout, as well as the delicate artistry of its carvings.

The next stop is Ta Prohm, one of the most popular attractions of Angkor as much of the jungle has not been cleared and it looks very much as most of the Angkor monuments would have appeared when European explorers first found them.

Finally we stop for lunch at a local Cambodian Restaurant and savor traditional Khmer cuisine. Later today we make the short flight to Da Nang, Vietnam.

Da Nang is home to one of Asia's best beaches, rich cultural and historical sights, and Vietnam's best golf courses. Our beautiful Fusion Maia Resort offers each guest their own private pool villa, and is also 'spa inclusive' providing unlimited massages and spa treatments on a complimentary basis.

OVERNIGHT: Fusion Maia Resort – Pool Villa

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7: DA NANG, VIETNAM

GOLF: Montgomerie Links Vietnam, The Montgomerie Links site has an amazing beachscape, which makes the perfect palette for this links style course. Moving boldly over wispy Casuarina pines and sand dunes the Montgomerie Links Vietnam enjoys a wonderful links feel.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers visit one of Hoi An's most famous cooking schools to learn the art of Vietnamese cooking. This fun-filled class and demonstration is great for experts and novices alike. Learn to make traditional Vietnamese dishes including fresh spring rolls, rice paper, and healthy Vietnamese salads.

OVERNIGHT: Fusion Maia Resort – Pool Villa

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8: DA NANG VIETNAM

GOLF: Ba Na Hills Golf Club is laid out in several valleys of the surrounding mountain ranges and has a diverse mix holes at higher elevation with spectacular views. The front nine holes form a traditional parkland course surrounded by pine forests. The back nine play along and up-and-down the surrounding hills with many blind shots and doglegs. Bunkering at Ba Na Hills is unique with long grass around the edges and face of each hazard.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers will journey to the UNESCO site of My Son, the former center of the Champa Kingdom, a sophisticated civilization which held sway over the region from the 4th to the 13th centuries. Today, all that are left are five archaeological sites from different periods, in a green setting of hills and winding streams. After a brief overview of Cham history and culture, visit each ruin in turn, walking along forested paths.

OVERNIGHT: Fusion Maia Resort – Pool Villa

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9: DA NANG VIETNAM

GOLF: Da Nang Golf Club. Reminiscent of both Scottish links golf and Carolina sand hills golf, Australia's Great White Shark Greg Norman has created arguably Vietnam's best course.

SIGHTSEEING: Morning at leisure. In the late afternoon join the golfers to explore the nearby UNESCO world heritage village of Hoi An. Built on the banks of the Thu Bon River, Hoi An used to be a transit maritime port in the 10th century and sections of the town look exactly as they did in centuries past. With its narrow streets and quaint mix of architecture, picturesque Hoi An is a favorite with many visitors including the old houses, Pagodas, the famous Temple Bridge, and many fine craft centers.

We continue our time in Hoi An by enjoying an innovative Taste of Hoi An 'dine around' tour.

OVERNIGHT: Fusion Maia Resort – Pool Villa

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10: HANOI, VIETNAM

After breakfast we make the short domestic flight north to Hanoi for next stop on our adventure! After arrival in Hanoi and transfer to our hotel, the balance of the day is available to steep yourself in history, tradition, and legend in a capital that has been inhabited continuously for almost a millennium. Visitors often note that the city is quieter, greener, and cooler than other Asian big cities.

OVERNIGHT: Sofitel Metropole Hotel – Premium Room

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11: HANOI, VIETNAM

GOLF: Today play Van Tri Golf Club North Vietnam's most exclusive private course. The course is visually stunning as various colors, textures, heights and elements of stone, water, sand, grass and trees to provide a great variety that defines each and every individual hole. Stately pine trees define most holes and small moguls dot the fairways and highlight the sharp-edged green side bunker complexes.

SIGHTSEEING: Non-Golfers will travel to visit the famous Old Quarter to visit the Museum of Ethnology, Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, and 'Hanoi Hilton' (POW prison) John McCain memorial, and water puppet show. After the tour return to your hotel where your evening is free to explore Hanoi on your own.

OVERNIGHT: Sofitel Metropole Hotel – Premium Room

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12: HALONG BAY, VIETNAM

After breakfast we make the scenic drive to the iconic Halong Bay where we board our private replica junk boat. We stay one night onboard as we cruise the islands and inlets of Halong Bay. All meals are included onboard.

Over lunch we cruise through the most beautiful and quiet area in Bai Tu Long Bay and Halong Bay to visit Cua Van Fishing Village, one of the largest fishing villages on the Bay.

In 1991 a scene of the French movie INDOCHINE was filmed on the Bay. The film was about the life of a French woman who lived in Vietnam during the French domination in Indochina from mid-19th to mid-20th century. Halong, a World Heritage site recognized by UNESCO, covers 1,500 square kilometers and is part the Tonkin Gulf in the South China Sea. Ha Long Bay has nearly 2,000 limestone islands and islets.

Back on board we have time to relax before the chef conducts a Cooking Demonstration showing the guests how we decorate and make some Vietnamese food which is traditional food in Vietnam.

Our farewell dinner is then served onboard.

OVERNIGHT: Halong Bay (onboard private boat)

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13: HANOI, VIETNAM

Coffee, tea and breakfast pastries are available early, with Tai Chi lessons led by the boats tai chi master.

After breakfast onboard we disembark and make the return drive to Hanoi ready for evening homeward departures from Hanoi Airport (6pm earliest departure flight recommended). Our tour concludes with great memories and friendships made!
